

You Asked for It? – Good Questions have Good Answers

Sermon Discussion Guide for the week of April 30th, 2017

Primary Scriptures: Matt 22:34-40

Relationships

As you begin the study portion of your gathering ask a few of these questions to help your group focus their attention.

Why do you think we want movies to have a happy ending?

What made you decide to wear the clothes you wore to church this week?

Would you want the ability to know your future? Why or why not?

Scripture

What are some of the questions you wish the Bible was more explicit in answering?

What are some Biblical principles that shape your life?

How aware are you of the choices you make on a day to day basis?

Have a volunteer read Proverbs 13:20

How have you applied this verse when you are looking for new friends or colleagues?

What does it mean to be wise?

Have a volunteer read John 8:58

Why did the Jews attempt to stone Jesus?

Why do you think God uses “I AM” as one of His names?

Have a volunteer read Matthew 22:34-40

Jesus says “All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.” What does He mean?

How could these two commandments be used as guiding principles for any question?

Mission

How do you deal with questions and objections to faith that your friends may pose?

How do you deal with questions that you don't know the answer to?

Development

If you could change one event in history what would it be?

If you could change one event in your own life what would it be?

What do you think the ripple effects would be if the event above was different?
