

You Asked for It It's Complicated

Sermon Discussion Guide for the week of April 27, 30, May 1, 2016

Main Point: We all have questions about relationships.

Hebrews 10: 19-25

CONNECT

---

What are some of the things you have in common with the other people in our Life Group?

Who is your most encouraging and supportive friend?

Who is one person in your life that makes you want to be a better person when you are around them? Why do you think that is?

LEARN

Have a volunteer read Hebrews 10:19-25.

How does the sacrifice of Jesus affect your relationships with others?

What do you think it means to have access to God through Jesus? How is this different from the way a first century believer viewed their relationship with God?

How would you define forgiveness?

Why do you think it is so hard to forgive after a friend or loved one has betrayed you?

What are the benefits that come from being in relationships with others?

What are some of the difficulties of maintaining relationships?

Why do you think some friendships give life and others suck the life out of you?

What are some relational boundaries you have in your life?

What do you think are the key components to be a good friend?

Why do you think gossip is so hurtful?

How have you worked through your relationships to encourage others to love?

Why do you think it is important to continue to meet together when we can connect digitally?

SERVE

How can we encourage and support one another?

What are some practical ways we can build our relationships with others this week?

It's Complicated.

What are some areas of your relationship with God that need your attention this week?

PRAYER

Thank God for the gift of friendship and relationships. Ask Him to deepen the relationships within your group. Ask God to show you and your group how to be better friends to one another.
